SUBJECT: E-1 POLICE STATION SET TO OPEN THIS WEEKEND

REF: JERUSALEM 00722

Classified By: Consul General Jake Walles, per reasons 1.4 (b) and (d)

11. (C) Israeli National Police contacts informed ConGen RSO April 29 that they have the final permit necessary to occupy the newly built E-1 police station. A security guard at the Ras al-Amud police station told PolOff April 30 that the traffic division is scheduled to open May 1 at E-1 and all other sections on May 4 or shortly thereafter. The guard said the Ras al-Amud station closed April 28 and the Sheikh Jarrah station is serving as a base during the interim. He added that the move into the new station is going very quickly because the new station is fully furnished and equipped.

12. (C) At Ras al-Amud April 30, PolOff observed several men carrying boxes filled with files from the police station to a moving truck parked out front. At E-1 on April 30, PolOff observed more than 30 vehicles in the parking lot at the police headquarters, many of them police vehicles. A few individuals were moving around the parking lot. Cleared land reported previously has not changed.
